Wauhatchie; Easy Terms.

On Jan. 21, 1918, I will sell at public auction at west door of courthouse, Chattanooga, a valuable farm near Wauhatchie about eight miles from Chattanooga on the main Wauhatchie pike, the principal part of the land lying between the N. C. & St. L. rallway and the A. G. S. rallway and containing about 310 acres, with good dwelling house and barns; mostly cleared and in cultivation, there being some timber land, however, on the place. This land will first be offered in small tracts ranging from thirty to eighty acres, suitable for small farms, and will then be offered as a whole. Termst 20 per cent. cash, balance to be paid in 6, 12, 18, 24, 30 months, notes bearing 6 per cent. interest with personal security and lien on land. This is a fine opportunity to get a good farm well located, close to Chattanooga and on easy terms. If interested and desire further information, call on me.
